

HELLO AGAIN

VOL. 30 NO. 3

MAY – JUN 1999

A PERSONAL NOTE: Since the last issue Karen and I went to the Bahamas to attend the wedding of her son, Evan, and Shari Johnson. Some of you may remember Evan. He attended a few of our conventions and helped me at the dealers table. They are living in Chicago. We also visited my son Craig and his wife, Kim, and my new granddaughter, Angela Clare. They live in Peculiar, Missouri. My daughter, Robin has her hands full with her 3 sons, Jacob, Lucas and Caleb. Karen's daughter, Elisa is in her last year of Veterinary School at Ohio State.

REVISED ULTIMATE HISTORY: Just a reminder that this book was originally written in 1992 and is the first and original book listing Network radio programming and the shows that are in circulation. The second supplement to the Revised Ultimate History is available for $5.50 plus $1.50 P&H. It is the longest yet. Supplement #1 and #2 are $10.50 plus $1.50 P&H. The complete book including both supplements is $54 plus $4 P&H.

CONVENTION 1999: The dates are October 21 – 24 at the Holiday Inn - North, Newark. Thursday is now a half day with dealers starting around 12 noon. There is also a dinner with after dinner activities as before. We are also having a Sunday morning breakfast with a panel from about 8 am to 10 am.

SCRIPT WRITING CONTEST:

The Sixth annual original script writing contest is now open. We would like an original 30 minute script which must be based on any of the great radio programs of the past, such as The Shadow, Jack Benny, etc. The script can have the characters originating in their original era and time or you can update the time to today. If you have entered before and you have not won in 2 years, please enter again.

The script must have all music and sound cues as well as all the spoken material. Try to arrange it in script form so it doesn't have to be retyped.

The prize for the best script will be $150 and will have its live performance at our 2000 convention on Thursday evening after dinner. We would like you to attend our convention to participate but it is not mandatory. You can direct it if you wish. There will be some rehearsal time. Scripts must be submitted by September 1, 1999. Send to Dave Zwengler, 319 Plymouth Rd., North Brunswick, NJ 08902 (908) 940-7639. A distinguished panel of old-time radio buffs including Arthur Anderson will pick the winning script. They must be very readable. All are eligible so please spread the word.

Winners have been Michael Giorgio, James Nixon, Edgar Russell, Jr, Donald Dortmund and Joel Senter. This year's winner was Arlene Osborne.

Will all clubs with newsletters print the above in order to give everyone a chance?

THE PEMCO/REPS RADIO SHOWCASE VII

"Mystery at the Mike"

Radio Showcase VII will return to the Seattle Center, home of the famous Space Needle. Hosted by The Radio Enthusiasts of Puget Sound (REPS) and PEMCO Financial Services -welcomed back as the corporate sponsor.

The theme for 1999 is 'Mystery at the Mike' covering westerns/police/adventure/sci-fi and more. It will be broadly interpreted, allowing us to re-create shows as diverse as: Red Ryder Broadway Is My Beat Jack Armstrong, All American Boy The Adventures of Nero Wolfe Suspense (subject to change.) Heck, we might even do the Alan Young Show as a mystery. In all cases, we'll have actors who worked the original versions.

ALAN YOUNG, TOMMY COOK & CHARLES FLYNN IN SHOWCASE CAST
Each Showcase allows us to invite several new OTR friends to share their talents and experiences. These fine folks will add so much to this Showcase.
Alan Young of radio, film and Mr. Ed fame
Tommy Cook from Red Ryder, Blondie
Charles Flynn-he was Jack Armstrong +

WORLD SERIES

CLASSICS

Historic reenactment audio recordings of some of the greatest World Series of all time!

Hear these great games in the manner they were broadcast across America decades ago. Complete and authentic play-by-play reenactment with every play of every game!

Now available:

1956 - New York Yankees vs. Brooklyn Dodgers

Don Larsen's perfect game for the Yankees came in Game 5.

This was the final series for the Dodgers
while still in Brooklyn.

1946-St. Louis Cardinals vs. Boston Red Sox

Southpaw Harry Brecheen of the Cardinals had two complete game victories (allowing only one run) and won a third game in relief.

1945 - Detroit Tigers vs. Chicago Cub

Before the series began, veteran Chicago sportswriter Warren Brown said he couldn't select a winner because he didn't "think either one of them could win."

Each complete Series is approx. nine hours on cassettes and loaded with personal recollections and anecdotes from hundreds of interviews.
Sense the thrill of by-gone games and enjoy baseball's most exciting moments with the greatest stars in action once again!

How WORLD SERIES CLASSICS were assembled

Working from statistical information on something like 14,000 baseball players and biographical information on 6000-7000 players, managers and umpires, factual material was fitted together for the highest degree of authenticity. Further research was done through libraries, record books, newspaper accounts, and recorded data.

Then, the creator of this concept carefully reconstructed every play of each game. Every 7-game series is approximately 9 hours long. Personal recollections and anecdotal material gained through hundreds of interviews add background color in order to create as genuine a feel as possible for games that took place decades ago.

It is our sincere belief that you will experience the exciting action of these great games of yesteryear and thoroughly enjoy hearing some of baseball's greatest stars "play ball" again!

Additional Series coverage is planned.
